

Jessica Vaughan, Ph.D.

Education:

- 2012 Ph.D. Clinical Psychology, University of Southern Mississippi
- 2010 M.A. Clinical Psychology, University of Southern Mississippi
- 2007 B.S. Psychology, Birmingham-Southern College

Licensure:

Licensed Psychologist, Alabama (#1823)

Selected Clinical Experience:

- 6/14-present Clinical Psychologists, P.C., Auburn, AL. Conduct complete psychological assessments on children and adults.
- 7/12-present Central Alabama Veterans Health Care System, Tuskegee, AL. Clinical Psychologist. Providing individual and group psychotherapy to Veterans in an outpatient clinic; conducting psychological and psychoeducational assessments for diagnosis and treatment purposes; providing couples therapy to Veterans and their partners; providing supervision to predoctoral interns.
- 7/11-7/12 Central Alabama Veterans Health Care System, Tuskegee, AL. (APA approved). Psychology Intern. Provided brief psychological services to Veterans in a primary care setting; participated in a multidisciplinary chronic pain management program; provided intensive individual and group psychotherapy to Veterans diagnosed with PTSD; conducted comprehensive psychological evaluations.